Our Institute

Brief History of ICBC Nigeria

THE INSTITUTE OF CERTIFIED BUSINESS CONSULTANTS (ICBC), NIGERIA, is an affiliate of ICBC Canada/USA. The Institute has a worldwide membership of business professionals. ICBC Nigeria is fully incorporated in Nigeria with the Corporate Affairs Commission (CAC) on November 19, 2013, as an educational Institute. The Institute is saddled with the responsibility of providing quality Education, Training, Consultancy, and Research & Development services in Business Management to the citizens at a higher standard to boost the Nigerian Economy.

The Institute of Certified Business Consultants (ICBC), USA, is an international professional organization chartered in the States of Delaware and Washington, USA with an international administrative office in Delaware (3422, Old Capitol Trail Suite 1063, Wilmington De 19808-6192, USA). Our members are employed in all sectors of the economy, making significant contributions to the efficiency of businesses. Our focus has always been on delivering professional values and high ethical standards, thus offering opportunities for studying and career advancement in all fields of business.

Who we are:

The Institute of Certified Business Consultants is a non-profit professional body for business professionals from all fields of learning. We have a growing global presence with a strong focus on professional values and high ethical standards, and the opportunity for study and career advancement in the field of business consulting.

The Institute under the ongoing Window of Opportunity for Nigerian citizens that have contributed to business development in their chosen fields of practice as well as those who have obtained the basic qualifications, admits you into the Institute's membership category (Fellow, Full Member, Associate, Graduate, Student, and Corporate membership).

We believe your knowledge and experience will add value to what we have been doing over the years. We also believe that we can contribute to making your professional knowledge available to society through the platform of Business Consultancy.

Why not join/refer someone to join the Institute of Certified Business Consultants and become a Certified Business Consultant. Expand your knowledge and career potential with the Institute, as there is an increasing amount of overseas employment and assignments of varying duration. This helps consultants (members) to gain first-hand experience in international business.

The global ICBC has partnered with the award-winning Skillsology Online Learning Platform based in the UK to offer members the opportunity to study for the Mini MBA program. This course is 100% online and that means one can study anytime from anywhere. ICBC Global has also partnered with UTICA College in New York for several online courses, Brentwood Open Learning College, UK, these learning opportunities are available to ICBC members worldwide with discounted tuition fees. Efforts are being made for more local and international partnerships for members' educational advancement.

PARTNERSHIP/PROFESSIONAL COLLABORATION:

ICBC Nigeria partners with Small and Medium Enterprises Development Agency of Nigeria (SMEDAN), Lagos, and Technology Incubation Center, South-West Zone. With this partnership, ICBC is poised to further enhance entrepreneurship capacity building in the country. ICBC Nigeria is also partnering with the National Youth Service Corps (NYSC) Skill Acquisition & Entrepreneurship Development (SAED), Lagos for the training of Corps members on Entrepreneurship and Workplace expectations on regular basis. This training is highly appreciated by the Corps members as well as SAED officials.

The Institute's Aims and objectives:

1. The Institute's founding fathers saw the yearnings of young school leavers seeking white-collar jobs that are not readily available, and saw the need to bridge this gap by making white-collar job seekers to become entrepreneurs through the Institute's training and coaching programs.
2. The Institute is of the opinion that for any country to grow its Gross Domestic Product (GDP) there must be a deliberate collaboration of all stakeholders in that country.
3. The founding fathers of this great Institute leverage the idea that a country's economic growth should not be left in the hands of University and Polytechnic graduates without developing the crafts and artisans' sector.
4. ICBC embraces and teaches all forms of business models employed by businesses; be it manufacturing, distributing, retailing, or franchising in creating and delivering value to customers.
5. Business today requires professionals to integrate knowledge from multiple sources to address strategic business issues and help to create new innovation-driven business models.

6. All over the world there are persistent business collapses; a high percentage population of youth unemployed. The Institute of Certified Business Consultants has formed a bedrock of highly experienced hybrid professionals with robust ideas to proffer solutions for the general growth of the economy.

7. Business consultants provide support services to clients in a wide variety of situations and business scenarios arising from various professional areas. The uniqueness of the ICBC is in the multidisciplinary nature of its professionals.

ICBC Nigeria Strategic Goals:

To become a chartered Institute in Nigeria.

Establishing ICBC Nigeria University.

Setting up ICBC Nigeria Training Centers in all the states

Partnering with Local/Regional/African and Oversea Institutions of higher learning for members' direct entry and with some credit exemptions.

To be a first-class Institute known for skills acquisition and business start-up training in Nigeria and in Africa.

ICBC Nigeria Functions and Powers:

Determining the standard and knowledge and skills attained by persons seeking to become member of the Institute and improve those standards from time to time.

Secure a register of members of the Institute and publish the register from time to time.

Provide research and development of curricula of training and education.

Professional Code of Conduct

All members of the ICBC share a devotion to high professional standards and best business practices. This is made concrete by the fact that every member at every level – from student to Certified Business Consultant (Cert. BC) – must agree to abide by the Code of Ethics.

Building Trust

- To succeed as a consultant your clients must believe in you and trust that you are working in their best interest. In a profession where there are often few guideposts, members of the Institute serve as benchmarks for the clients' community.
- The Code of Conduct, as well as the global Cert. BC designation, assures clients that they are hiring the best and highly ethical consulting talents.
- The Institute's very public establishment and promotion of this Code set you apart from non-members and aids you in building a professional relationship with your clients founded on trust.

Purpose

The purpose of this code is to identify those professional obligations that serve to protect the public in general and the client in particular. The code is also designed to identify clearly the expectations of members with respect to other members and the profession.

Responsibilities to the Profession:

Knowledge

- A member shall be kept informed of the applicable Codes of Professional Conduct.
- A member shall strive to keep current with developments in any area of the profession where specific expertise is claimed.

Self-Discipline

- A member shall recognize that the self-disciplinary nature of the profession is a privilege and that the member has a responsibility to merit retention of this privilege. Therefore, a member shall report to the Board/Governing Council unbecoming professional conduct by another member.

Responsibilities to Others:

- A member shall ensure that other business consultants carrying out work on the member's behalf are conversant with, and abide by, the applicable Codes of Professional Conduct.

Image

- A member shall behave in a manner that maintains the good reputation of the profession and its ability to serve the public interest.
- A member shall avoid activities that adversely affect the quality of that member's professional advice.
- A member may not carry on a business that clearly detracts from the member's professional status.

Duty of Care

- A member shall act in the best interest of the client, providing professional services with integrity, objectivity, and independence in a manner that should not allow a client to suffer any loss as a result of his/her professional services.
- A member shall not encourage unrealistic client expectations.

Responsibilities to Clients:

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

- A member shall not adopt any method of obtaining a business that detracts from the professional image of the Institute or its members.

COMPETENCE

- A member shall accept only those assignments that the member has the knowledge and skill to perform.

INFORMED CLIENT

- A member shall, before accepting an assignment, reach a mutual understanding with the client as to the assignment objectives, scope, work plan, and costs.

Fee Arrangement

- A member shall establish fee arrangements with a client in advance of any substantive work and shall inform all relevant parties when such arrangements may impair or may be seen to impair the objectivity or independence of the member.
- A member shall not enter into fee arrangements that have the potential to compromise the member's integrity or the quality of services rendered.

Conflict of interest

- A member shall avoid acting simultaneously for two or more clients in potentially conflicting situations without informing all parties in advance and securing their agreement to the arrangement.
- A member shall inform a client of any interest that may impair or may be seen to impair professional judgment.
- A member shall not take advantage of a client relationship by encouraging unless by way of an advertisement, an employee of that client to consider alternative employment without prior discussion with the client.

Confidentiality

- A member shall treat all client information as confidential.

Objectivity

- A member shall refrain from serving a client under terms or conditions that impair independence and a member shall reserve the right to withdraw from the assignment if such becomes the case.

Legal

- A member shall act in accordance with the applicable legislation and laws.

Obligations of Members to the Institute:

1. To uphold at all times the integrity of the institute's mandates, visions, and objectives.
2. To be a worthy ambassador wherever and whenever.
